ABSTRACT

THE ROLE OF THE YOUTH, SPORTS, AND TOURISM OFFICE IN THE DEVELOPMENT EFFORTS OF THE GUBUG WAYANG MUSEUM IN MOJOKERTO CITY

Indonesia is a country rich in tourism potential, including natural, cultural, and historical attractions. One of its cultural heritages with high historical and philosophical value is wayang (traditional puppetry), which serves as a medium for education and the preservation of national cultural values. In this context, the role of the government—particularly through the Youth, Sports, and Tourism Office is essential in preserving, developing, and promoting this cultural heritage. This study aims to describe and analyze the role of the Youth, Sports, and Tourism Office in the development of the Gubug Wayang Museum in Mojokerto City. This research uses a descriptive qualitative approach, employing observation and interviews as data collection techniques. The data are analyzed using Iyas Yusuf's (2014) theory of government roles, which includes the roles of regulator, facilitator, and dynamizer. The results show that the Youth, Sports, and Tourism Office has carried out its roles as a regulator, facilitator, and dynamizer by implementing various programs to support the museum. However, its efforts are still not optimal due to limitations in resources and budget constraints.
